[1]

1

[GOVERNMENT OF ENGLAND, 1605]

By the King.

A Proclamation

to redreffe the mif-imployment of Lands, Goods, and other things given for Charitable ufes.

X / Hereas Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and affigned, afwell by his Majefties most noble our charitable and well affected Subjects, by Progenitors, as by fundry other well difpofed reftoring, and true employing of divers and many poore people, fome for maintenance of ficke and the true Institution, Ordinance, and Intention of the maymed Souldiers and Mariners, Schooles of Founders and Donors in that behalfe: learning, free Schooles, and Schollers in Universities; Some for repaire of Bridges, Ports, Havens, Caufe-wayes, Churches, Seabanks, and Highwayes; Some for education and preferment of Orphanes; Some for or towards reliefe, stock, or maintenance for houses of Correction; Some for marriages of poore Maydes; Some for Supportation, ayde, and helpe of yong Tradesmen, Handicrafts men, and perfons decayed; And others for reliefe, or redemption of Prifoners, or Captives, and for ayde or eafe of any poore Inhabitants, concerning payment of Fifteenes, fetting out of Souldiers, and other Taxes:

which Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels, Money, and other things nevertheleffe have not bene imployed according to the charitable intent of the Givers and Founders thereof, by reafon of frauds, breaches of truft, and negligences in those, that should pay, deliver, and employ the fame.

For redresse and reformation whereof, remedy and reliefe have bene provided, in and by one Act of Parliament, made in the three and fourtieth yeere of the reigne of the late Queene of famous memory, Elizabeth late Queene of England. [2]

By the due execution of which Act, in divers and goods, Chattels, Money, and other things many parts of this Realme, much good hath have bene heretofore given, limitted, appointed enfued, by the diligence and traveile of divers of perfons; Some for reliefe of aged, impotent, and of the faide Gifts and Endowments, according to

> And much more good his Majestie dayly expecteth should be done in so Religious a case, acceptable to God and all good men.

> And whereas fuch as have the care, charge and governement of the Colledges, Halles, and houses of learning within either of the Universities of Cambridge or Oxford, or of the Colleges of Westminster, Eaton, or Winchester, or of any Cathedrall or Collegiate Church, were prefumed by the makers of the faid Act, in refpect of their Profeffions and Offices (which ought to put them in continuall memorie of their duties) to neede no Law to enforce them to the performance of fo just and charitable a worke, And therefore did by fpeciall Provifo except and exempt them out of the faide Acte:

> His most excellent Majestie, in his godly meditations, calling to his bleffed remembrance, how good and neceffarie it is, That the devout, godly, and charitable intents of the faid Founders and Givers (hould be exactly and duely performed, And nothing doubting, but that the faide perfons, bodies Politique and Corporate fo excepted, will aswell in discharge of their owne consciences (albeit they be not bound by the faide Acte) as for example to all others (that may bee enforced thereby) will fpeedily, Chriftianly, and exactly perfourme their faid dutie:

> Yet left that any in fo great a number should bee found eyther fo remiffe, as to neglect the fpeedie employment of the fame, or fo uncharitable and unconfcionable, as in any fort, by fraude or devices to seke to pervert or overthrow the true insti-

<sup>[1] [</sup>Source: British Library C. 112.h.1, 55; also A Booke of Proclamations, published since the beginning of his Majesties most happy Reigne over England, &c. Untill this prefent Moneth of Febr. 3. Anno Dom, 1609, London, pp 109-111; see also Stuart Royal Proclamations, Volume I, Royal Proclamations of King James I, 1603-1625, edited by James F. Larkin, c.s.v. and Paul L. Hughes. Oxford: Clarendon Press, 1973. No. 55, pp. 118–121.]

<sup>[2] [43</sup> Elizabeth 1 c 4]

2

Proclamation de 1605 sur le détournement de bienfaits par les collèges et cathédrales

tution & meaning of the faid Founders or Givers; His most excellent Majestie, in his Princely & time, and draw the parties exempted out of the faid Royall care, That the faid good and godly uses & intents may be duely & speedily employed, as is above fayd, And that no perfon or perfons, bodies Politique or Corporate (prefuming to paffe away this more fpeedy courfe, by thefe prefents in manwith impunity) neglect, or not performe their duties in that behalfe, Doeth (by Advife of his Privie the perfon and perfons, bodies Politique and Cor-Councell)<sup>[3]</sup> (traitghly charge and commaund a fwell all and finguler perfon and perfons, bodies Politique, and Corporate within either of the faid Universities of Cambridge or Oxford, or within Westminster, Eaton, or Winchester, or any Cathedrall or Collegiate Church afore faid, as all other perfon and perfons, bodies Politique and Corporate whatfoever having any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Proffits, Goods, Chattels, Summes of money, or other things mentioned to be given, limited, affigned or appointed to or for any of the good and charitable uses above faid, That they and every of them doe well and faithfully imploy the faid Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels, Summes of money or other things, according to the true meaning, ordinance, and institution of the Founders, or Givers of the same, upon paine of his Majesties high difpleasure, and of such penalties and punishments, as they [hall juftly deferve for contemning of his Royall commaundement, in a caufe fo just and neceffary to be performed, and for their demerits in that behalfe. [4]

And albeit his Majestie knoweth, that for and concerning fuch perfon and perfons, bodies politique and Corporate as be exempted out of the faid Act, fuch fufficient remedie and reformation by visitations, and other lawfull meanes may be had in the cafes above faid:

Yet forafmuch as these proceedings will require Act, from their ftudies, and exercises of learning, and put them to no fmall charge; His most excellent Majestie, hath for their ease and profit taken ner and forme above faid; Giving all and finguler porate above faid affuredly to know, That who foever shall violate, or not performe his Majesties Royall commaundement hereby published, that he, or they, or any of them shall not hope to passe away with impunity, but shall undergoe such paines, penalties, and punishments, as by the severity of the Lawes of this Realme, may be inflicted and imposed upon so grievous and uncharitable offendours.

Given at his Majesties Castle of Rockingham the xi. of August 1605. in the third yeere of his Majefties Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland.

God fave the King.

Imprinted at London by Robert Barker, Printer to the Kings most Excellent Majestie. ANNO DOM. 1605.

[Notes from Larkin and Hughes, op. cit., pp. 118–119:

- Chancery Warrants for the Great Seal, C 82/1720/24: sign manual; date of schedule as Short-Title Catalogue of Books printed in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and of English Books printed abroad, 1475-1640, ed. A. W. Pollard, G. R. Redgrave, et al. (1926) [STC]; subscribed 'Edw. Coke'.
- Declared Accounts (Hanaper Accounts), Pipe Office, Exchequer E 351/1639/4d: Great Seal issue, 17 Aug.
- Patent Rolls, Class C 66/1665/4d: date of schedule as STC.
- Corporation of London, Journals of the Common Council 1603-25, Records Office, Guildhall. 26/364: manuscript copy for London; date of writ to mayor and sheriffs of London, Westminster, 17 Aug.; proclaimed 19 Aug. • STC 8375: schedule as [above].
- Another edition: Barker, R., King's Printer to James I, ed., A Booke of Proclamations . . . 1609; 1612. 109.
- Local records: Borough of Leicester, Hall Papers 2/261, 3s. 4d. paid on 27 Oct. for delivery of this inter alia; Borough of Rye, Land Chamberlains Rough Accounts 61/12/39, entered 23 Aug.
- Stow, J., Annales, or a Generall Chronicle of England . . . to 1631, continued by E. Howes, 870: date, 10 Aug.
- Steele, R. R., A Bibliography of Royal Proclamations of the Tudor and Stuart Sovereigns, and of Others published under Authority, 1485–1714, in Bibliotheca Lindesiana, v (Oxford, 1910), 1016.
- Text: STC 8375; British Museum Library C. 112.h.1, 55.]

<sup>[3]</sup> Earlier in the year, in a memorandum of business with his Council, James included 'the abuse of hospitals and alms houses' (State Paper Office, Public Record Office. Domestic Series 14/14/51). [Larkin and Hughes, op. cit., p. 120.]

<sup>[4]</sup> The proceedings of the commissioners for charitable uses, by counties, are in the Public Record Office of Great Britain, London [now the UK National Archives], under the class-headings C 90, C 91, C 92, and C 93: sad stories of foundations for the aged and poor being wrested to the profit of individual occupants or lessors. The administration of this proclamation touched a number of livery companies of London, which were prevailed upon to compound, in some cases more than once, for continuing possession of land originally willed to charitable uses (see Dietz, F. C., English Public Finance, 1558-1641 (New York, 1932) 179). [Larkin and Hughes, op. cit., p. 120.]