[GOVERNMENT OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, 1860] [1]

[Proclamation for encouraging virtue and punishing immorality]

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality.

VICTORIA R.

W E most seriously and religiously considering that it is Our indispensible Duty to be careful above all other Things, to preserve and advance the Honour and Service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery, and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God and so great a Reproach to Our Religion and Government:

To the Intent, therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal Purpose and Resolution to discountenance and punish all Manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality, in all Persons of whatsoever Degree or Quality within this Our Realm:

And We do expect and require, That all Persons of Honour, or in Place of Authority, will give good Example by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing Persons of dissolute and immoral Lives:

And We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving Subjects, of what Degree or Quality soever, from playing, on the Lord's Day, at Dice, Cards, or any other Game whatsoever, either in Public or Private houses, or other Place or Places whatsoever:

and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the Worship of God on every Lord's Day:

Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors,

Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our Subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the Discovery and the effectual Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons who shall be guilty of dissolute, immoral, or disorderly Practices;

and that they take care also effectually to suppress all Public Gaming Houses and Places, and lewd and other disorderly Houses; and also to suppress and prevent all Gaming whatsoever, in Public or Private Houses, on the Lord's Day;

and likewise that they take effectual Care to prevent all Persons keeping Taverns, or other Public Houses whatsoever, from selling Wine, Beer, or other Liquors, or receiving or permitting Guests to be or remain in such their Houses, in the Time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day.

And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace to give strict Charges at their respective Assizes and Sessions for the due Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons that shall presume to offend in any of the Kinds aforesaid; and also of all Persons that, contrary to their Duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said Laws in execution:

and that they do, at their respective Assizes and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the Charge is given.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Ninth Day of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

GOD save the QUEEN.
